LOVING GOD WITH OUR MINDS

Personal Meditation on the Ordering of Our Lives

God may be understood as the one who cries out the claim of new, relevant possibilities throughout the domain of life. We are offered a vision of something beyond ourselves and our past that calls us forward in each moment into a yet unsettled future, luring us with new and richer possibilities for our being. That something is an ever-changing possibility which impinges upon as the relevant ideal of each new moment. It is the power that makes for novelty, creativity, and life. Its power is not coercive, and for that very reason, it is effectual. It is worthy of our worship and commitment, and warrants our use of the word, God."

– John Cobb in God and the World

A Responsive Litany

- Leader: We have to worship this morning for no better reason than to love our God.
- People: We are here to love God fully, bringing all of who we are, hiding nothing.
- Leader: God meets us here in worship to call us forward.
- People: He is the God who says, "Behold, I make all things new."
- Leader: We know that any person in Christ is to become a new creation,
- People: Old things pass away, behold all things become new.
- Leader: We are here for better reasons than to have our old patterns and prejudices reinforced.

YOUTH NEWS

ICE SKATING

Our fun on Sundays continues today with a trip to go ice skating or any of the others things you can enjoy at The Factory in Wake Forest. We will leave ZBC at 1 PM and return about 4:30 for Bible study and home made ice cream. We will continue our discussion of “Proverbs for Youth.” Tonight’s event will end around 6:00.

Next week’s Summer Sunday Fun will be a “Hello/Goodbye” dinner for all youth and their parents at 7 PM in the Blue Room. We will be welcoming our rising 8th graders, saying farewell to those leaving for college, and sharing information about the fall youth ministry. We will provide the baked ham and beverages – youth and their families need to bring desserts, green bean casseroles, and macaroni and cheese to complete the menu. There will be some games for the youth and parents to enjoy.

Weather permitting, (somewhat less than 100 degrees), youth and their parents are invited to enjoy tennis next Sunday afternoon at East Wake High School at 4 PM. We would love to get 12 players and have a real tennis match with singles and doubles competition. We’ll let you know based on the weather next Sunday morning if we need to reschedule.

“WIDE AWAKE” MINI-RETREAT FOR JUNIORS NEXT SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 6, 5-9:30 PM

Enjoy an evening at church watching and discussing the movie Wide Awake, a great film about a boy’s journey through his fifth grade year filled with his questions about God. Pastor Jack will lead the discussion of the film. There will also be time for some games and a trip to Sonic for supper. Juniors should plan to attend this fun evening and invite friends to join them. Rising fourth graders can make this their “welcome to Juniors” first event, and it would be a great last event for our rising 8th graders who will be leaving Juniors for Youth. Plan to join us Saturday, from 5 until 9:30 in the Blue Room.

IT’S TIME FOR AN AMAZING RACE!

The K-1st, 2nd-3rd, 4th-5th, and 6th-7th grade Sunday School classes are invited to a battle of wits, daring, skill, and fun on Sunday, August 7 at 3:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall. Come with your game faces on and get ready to rumble!

COOKING SAFETY FOR KIDS

On August 16 from 2:00-4:30 PM the Girl Scouts, with the help of the Zebulon Fire Department, will be having a cooking safety class for kids ages 8-14 in the Blue Room. If you are interested in attending, please contact Darcie Helbig at 269-0743 or Keely White at 375-4001. Space is limited!

People: We are here to listen for the call of God and to obey God’s voice and change whatever we are called to change.

Leader: Let us believe in God with all our being. Let us see Jesus.
Let us feel the presence of the Spirit in our midst.

People: And in the presence of God, let us surely know that we will be different when we leave this place.

THE MARKS OF A MISSIONAL CHRISTIAN SMALL GROUP OPPORTUNITY

For five Sundays, beginning today, our Pastor will be preaching sermons on "The Marks of a Missional Christian". Tomorrow you are invited to a discussion group that will meet in the Parlor from noon until 1 PM each Monday for the next five weeks to discuss the idea you have heard in the sermon that week. Tomorrow we will be discussing, "Resurrection Confidence". Come give the group a try tomorrow. We are breaking ground with these sermons and this discussion to help create a possible teaching resource for CBF churches on "The Marks of a Missional Christian". For those who work too far away to come on your lunch hour – Jack plans to discuss these ideas in the early weeks of Wednesday Night Bible Study this fall.

"UNDERSTANDING GRIEF" SMALL GROUP BEGINS TOMORROW

Our annual small group devoted to helping persons talk about their experiences of grief and to learn from others' experiences will begin tomorrow. The group will meet for four consecutive Mondays from 5 until 6:30 in the Parlor. This late afternoon start will allow persons to participate on the way home from work and be finished before dark. Anyone who has experienced the death of a close loved one within the past two years will benefit from being a part of this small group. Our Pastor will lead the group and will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Reverend Matt Dinkins enthusiastically accepted the call to serve at ZBC.

Both Matt and Lisa are looking forward to becoming part of ZBC when Matt begins work on September 7.

Juniors Handbell Camp ~ August 2, 3, and 7

Barbara Glasgow will be offering a Handbell Camp for Juniors, those who have completed grades 4-7, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon of this week. They will play in worship on Sunday, August 7. We will meet in the Handbell room at 4 each day to rehearse for an hour and a half. On Tuesday, parents can pick up their children at 5:30, but on Wednesday, the pick up time is 6:30, as we will enjoy supper at Sonic after rehearsal. For more information about Handbell Camp, contact Barbara. Please let Barbara know if you are interested in the camp today.

Fun Opportunity for Families This Thursday
