YOUTH MISSION TRIP TO WASHINGTON, DC!

Saturday, July 9 ~ Friday, July 15

Twenty Youth and five chaperons will be leaving ZBC the morning of July 9 to begin a week of fun, fellowship, service, and worship. We will spend the day Saturday at Kings Dominion and then travel to Washington, DC Sunday morning to check in with PassportMissions2, the group through which we will be living out our daily service, Bible Study, and worship activities. This particular Passport camp experience will allow our youth to be on mission sites from 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM each day of the week, truly helping them to serve those in need in the DC community. While in DC, we will be lodging and cooking our meals at Calvary Baptist Church, we will take a walk to the National Mall one evening, and have a special surprise DC experience on our free night. Our youth will be serving in various types of ministries - some working with children, some working on construction, some working with the homeless population, and several others. Passport camp staff will be leading us each day in Bible Study and worship. Please be in prayer for our whole group while we are away. Pray that God will speak to each person through the activities of the week and the relationships we build with each other and the people we serve. Pray that the people we meet will help us to grow in our faith and in compassion for all God's children. Pray that God will be at work transforming lives this week!

The youth who will go with us this week are Hailey Blount, Logan Blount, Maggie Brooks, Caitlin Brown, Caroline Carter, Eliza Dutcher, Emma Gardner, Sara Hester, Sydney Jordan, Mary Grace Lindley, Sarah Massey, Mackenzie Wehunt, Hope Williams, Zach Heath, Tyler Hester, Logan Jones, Devin Markland, Sam Marsh, Cody Staples, and Scott Staples. Our chaperons are Candace Heath, Katie Henry, Jennifer Asbill, Jackson Glasgow, and Chris Mitchell.

ASSOCIATE PASTOR CANDIDATE MATT DINKINS TO VISIT ZBC SUNDAY, JULY 17

Over the past several months, the Personnel Search Committee has been diligently working towards filling the Associate Pastor position that has been vacant for nearly a year. The committee received and reviewed over 50 resumes. There were 6 candidates who were interviewed. After a long, prayerful process, the committee selected Reverend Matt Dinkins to be the candidate presented to the congregation on July 17. You will be able to meet Matt in morning worship that day.

Matt is a 2008 graduate of Campbell University's Divinity School. He is currently serving Mt. Gilead Baptist Church in Durham. Prior to his work at Mt. Gilead, Matt has worked at WakeMed as a Chaplain Resident and volunteered with A Helping Hand. Matt and his wife, Lisa, currently live in Durham. They are expecting their first child in October. Matt and Lisa are looking forward to relocating to Zebulon as soon as possible.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to each of the Personnel Search Committee members. These men and women have been prayerfully working for the past several months to find an associate pastor candidate that best fits the needs of ZBC. Committee members include Trey Hocutt, Joe Turlington, Clayton Maynor, Jennifer Boyes, Ronda Sorrell, Yates Perry, Nelle Carroll, Susan Ellington, Pat Leonard and Jack Glasgow. If you have any questions about our Associate Pastor candidate or about the process we used to find him, please feel free to contact any committee member. The congregation's continual prayers for the process have been much appreciated by the entire committee. There will be a called conference on Sunday morning, July 24, at the beginning of the worship to vote on calling Matt Dinkins to our ministry staff.
